RESUME OF WEEK'S SPORTING NEWS

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 4.—Tiff financial curtailments in baseball are not confined to the big leagues is shown by records compiled from the minor league statistics of 1914 and 1915. In a list comprising twenty-two leagues of various classifications below the majors, the records show that more than half reduced either the salary or players' limit or both during the past winter. In no case was there an increase over the 1914 regulations in either the player or salary limit.

Reductions in the number of players to be carried ranged from two to five per club which in the case of a six-club league aggregated from twelve to thirty. The monthly salary roll dropped from $100 to $800 per month per club, with the average ranging close to $500. Taking $500 as the general average and five months as the average season, the saving per month figures $2500, and for a six-club league $15,000 for the season.

The following description of a baseball game, played recently in Australia between native and American residents, gives an excellent idea of antipodean baseball vernacular:

"The Americans mounted the box first, sending Marre to face the attack. The pitcher treated him with respect, allowing him to walk to first. Casey followed, and Hearnden's error enabled him to reach second in safety. Caswell then threw wildly at first bag, and before the ball was recovered Barre and Casey had sprinted across the plate. Tucker meanwhile had made good on the diamond, but Bragg's fly, which was muffed, gave the fieldman an opportunity of cutting the runner off at third. Bragg consequently scored on Brown's hit to the country, making three runs for the innings. Australia sent Hearnden to the box first, but a put-out at first base was registered. Comber followed, and Marr's had throw saw him safely landed at first. Goldby then came with a brilliant hit right

HEAVY BUSINESS AS RESULT OF THE WAR

GERMAN COMPANIES PRODUCING MUNITIONS OF WAR SHOW BIG PROFITS

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, June 4.—The annual reports of a number of German companies manufacturing arms, ammunition, automobiles, and machine tools, have been issued, showing to some extent the business resulting from the war.

The Ludwig Loewe company of Berlin, which produces machine-tools of American type, has just declared a dividend of 30 per cent, after having paid 18 per cent for 1913.

The Deutsche Waffen und Munitions-Fabriken (arms and ammunition trust), which is in close business relations with the Loewe concern, is distributing $1,430,000 in dividends, as compared with $1,200,000 for the previous year. But this does not tell the whole story of its business success, for it increased its bank balances and outstanding claims by $8,000,000.

The Daimler Motor company, which has a much smaller capital than the company just mentioned, doubled its bank balances and other reserves, raising them to $3,570,000, and made a very large increase in its dividend. This concern subscribed $1,200,000 to the new war loan.

Some criticism has been called forth in the press by the annual reports of these companies, it being claimed that they left some matters involved in obscurity so as not to show what huge profits they are making from army contracts.

ELKO MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Bert Ricketts, a well-known young man of Elko, was killed in an automobile accident early Tuesday morning. He ran his machine over the embankment where the creek runs close to Smith creek. The machine turned over and Ricketts was pinned beneath it and drowned. It is believed Ricketts was asleep when the car went over the embankment.

Thursday and Friday, June 17 and 18, will be devoted to 36-hole championship rounds, to total scores for the 72 holes to decide the title. In case of a tie, such as developed between Ray, Vardon and Quilmet at Brookline in 1913, the play-off round of 18 holes will be held on Saturday, June 19. Prize money to the extent of $900 and a gold medal emblematic of the championship will be distributed among the first ten players. In case one or more amateurs are included in this list suitable trophies in plate will replace the cash prizes.
